	Effective March 22, 2006
Subject:	Supersedes R-185	Dated 6/12/02
SENIOR CITIZEN EXEMPTION	Approved
Statute: AS 28.10.411 (f); 28.10.421 (d) (3) Regulation:	Form No. 807

An Alaska resident who is 65 years of age or older as of January 1st of the current year is entitled to register one non-commercial vehicle free of charge.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- The vehicle must be registered in the name of the applicant.
- Leased vehicles, vehicles titled in a business/company name, or vehicles titled solely in the name of a trust are not eligible for the exemption.
- The applicant is allowed ONE exemption at a time. If the vehicle is sold, wrecked or otherwise disposed of, the applicant may immediately use their exemption on a different vehicle. When the previous record still shows them as the owner, they must submit an assignment of interest, turn in the title (wrecked), or register the vehicle and pay regular fees prior to applying for the exemption on another vehicle. A new Form 807 is required.
- The exemption can be used on a subsequently issued disability or disabled veteran plate. The customer is eligible for a senior discount when they have a POW or Pearl Harbor Survivor plate on another vehicle.
- The $10.00 additional registration fee does not apply on an ORIGINAL application.
- When an applicant submits a senior application other, than when the vehicle is due for a renewal, process on a no fee duplicate registration and enter the "S" on the record. Print the registration and attach the affidavit.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Senior Citizen Exempt Affidavit (Form 807), completed in full, signed and notarized. (Required on the initial application or to change exemption to a different vehicle.)
- Follow normal registration procedures shown in R-210. (Renewal of Registration)
- Submit application with daily batch work.
- Enter a message stating the name of the person that applied for the exemption. Example: "Senior is Bruce" or "SCEA Bruce"
- When a person is adding a co-owner to a vehicle with a senior exemption, the registration does not start over. (Enter "N" for sale in ALVIN.)
- When a vehicle is co-owned and the senior is being removed, start the registration over and charge full fees, remove both the "S" and the senior message. (Enter "Y" for sale in ALVIN.)
